

Treasury Department,

BUREAU OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C., July 25th , 1887

Sir:

It is very desirable that you should cause $100,000 in "dimes" to be coined as soon as practicable after the resumption of operations at your institution.

I am informed by the Treasurer of the United States that the demand from the West for dimes is active and that the limited stock in the Treasury will soon be exhausted.

Please give this matter your early attention.

Very respectfully,

Acting Director of the Mint.

Hon. Daniel M. Fox,

Superintendent, U.S. Mint,

Philadelphia, Pa.
